As a family, we like working in the Lord's work. We have been working in our Congregation. We believe we should serve the Lord wherever He needs us in order to take the Gospel to families that have not heard the message of Salvation and new life in Jesus Christ. We have seen how the Lord Jesus Christ has blessed our lives with the provision of food and keeping us healthy, giving us energy to continue the hard fight against the principalities and powers entrenched in our community. With the support of our Pastor Milton Borja and his accompaniment, blessings and concern for our situation, we have been helped to have understand God's purpose in our life on this Earth which needs to be subject to the promises of God and His beloved Son.
